

20260425 On the Block Leaders of Freemason (Nazi-ism)

I am not simply throwing out ideas that randomly came to my mind about this group or that group of people. I am speaking from personal experience and am relying upon both historical facts, wisdom, and their own actions and admissions to reach these conclusions.

As an example of my worldwide experience in Freemasons and the 'Block Leaders' that they represent in our neighborhoods, I am sharing with you personal text messages about our experience - ALL THE WAY IN THE SMALL TOWN OF PERIANA, SPAIN!

While we were in Spain and viewing our prospective house for the first time in person, we -randomly - stopped by the local government office to make inquiry of their local laws and policies - which I had been researching in preparation for our move to Spain.

Seemingly, by magical apparition, a 'do-gooder' named Anne was standing inside of that (very local, small, and easily predicable) government office doing business of her own, speaking English, and seeming to be a nice and wonderful person to contact with regard to our upcoming move into the community.

So, we spoke with Anne. She was very pleasant offered us the names of local attorneys to work with and offered to help us . . . blah, blah, blah.

We ultimately purchased that house, and moved (without notifying Anne) into the community.

I swear to you: Within the first two weeks of us appearing in the neighborhood - without notifying her - This woman appeared at our door (walking up our private driveway which is very secluded, marked by no entry signs, etc) and startled us after we had left our house for a morning grocery run - after a night of personal celebration. Our house was a mess, we were hungover, and she appeared at our door without notice (as I write this cars are driving past my current home, loudly bass-ing, loudly passing by, etc. their Nazi-ism is so ridiculously annoying and bothersome), with several small dogs, and basically, invited herself into our dis-organized new home. We quickly cleaned up some personal items, and attempted to chat nicely with our new neighbors.

During that conversation, I explained to her, very honestly, that my wife and I had left the USA because our home is being attacked by Freemasons. She politely informed us. In seeming shock and surprise, of her own husband's affiliations with the Freemasons. His name is (King) David Richie. Their house is located at the main entrance to the small village of Moya, and they occupy the main building of the entrance to the local neighborhood.

So, I expressed to her, very clearly that it is, in fact, the Freemasons that are attempting to agitate and destroy every aspect of our life, that I was personally threatened by a man with a gun in my front yard, and that we were filing for political asylum in Spain as a result of ongoing persecution from the Donald Trump campaign (she quickly agreed to what a piece of shit Donald Trump is and assured us that she would be helpful, kind, and courteous to us.

She even offered us a 'gift' - which I immediately recognized to have the tell-tale 'signs' of the exact same type of 'sign language' operation that we left America to avoid. (I have a photo of this 'gift' but I really have to keep moving and get some stuff done today.) The 'gift was a bag of huge 'string beans' right off of the 'bean stalk' and the bag that she gave them to us in had a picture of a boy and his dog - a dog that looked exactly like my white maltese. (The boy and his dog are bean-stalked' (A car drives past the front of my home now)

So, long story short: Here are the text messages that eventually led to our providing them a trespass warning - which she immediately ignored - prompting me to very aggressively warn her to leave my property immediately or else I will call the police.

(Our water was shut off in retaliation about one week later, etc etc.)

The point of this story is: Freemasons act as 'Block Leaders' in your local communities.

This is a tactic of Nazi-ism and is just one of many 'signs' that I can see that the Freemason 'enlightenment' is actually the, very real and very dangerous, ideology of Satanic Nazism.

So, with this background in place, let me begin sharing with you the private text message exchange between myself and the wife of a 'former' Freemason, that came and 'snooped' on our home, allowed her dogs to run wild inside of our house while we very obviously had our dogs in a kennel, trespassed on our property within an hour of receiving our personal No Trespass notice, then our water was shut off by the local authorities within a week after this set of messages - the very same water that she is on her way to our house inform us of in person.

First, a picture of our drive way where this is all taking place:

Add to all of this the fact that as complete strangers and new residents to the small town of Periana, Spain, they also marked our driveway entrance, and then sent a person on a motorcycle to do a donut on this driveway closest to our house - in the middle of the day, very loudly revving his engine, etc. etc. . . .

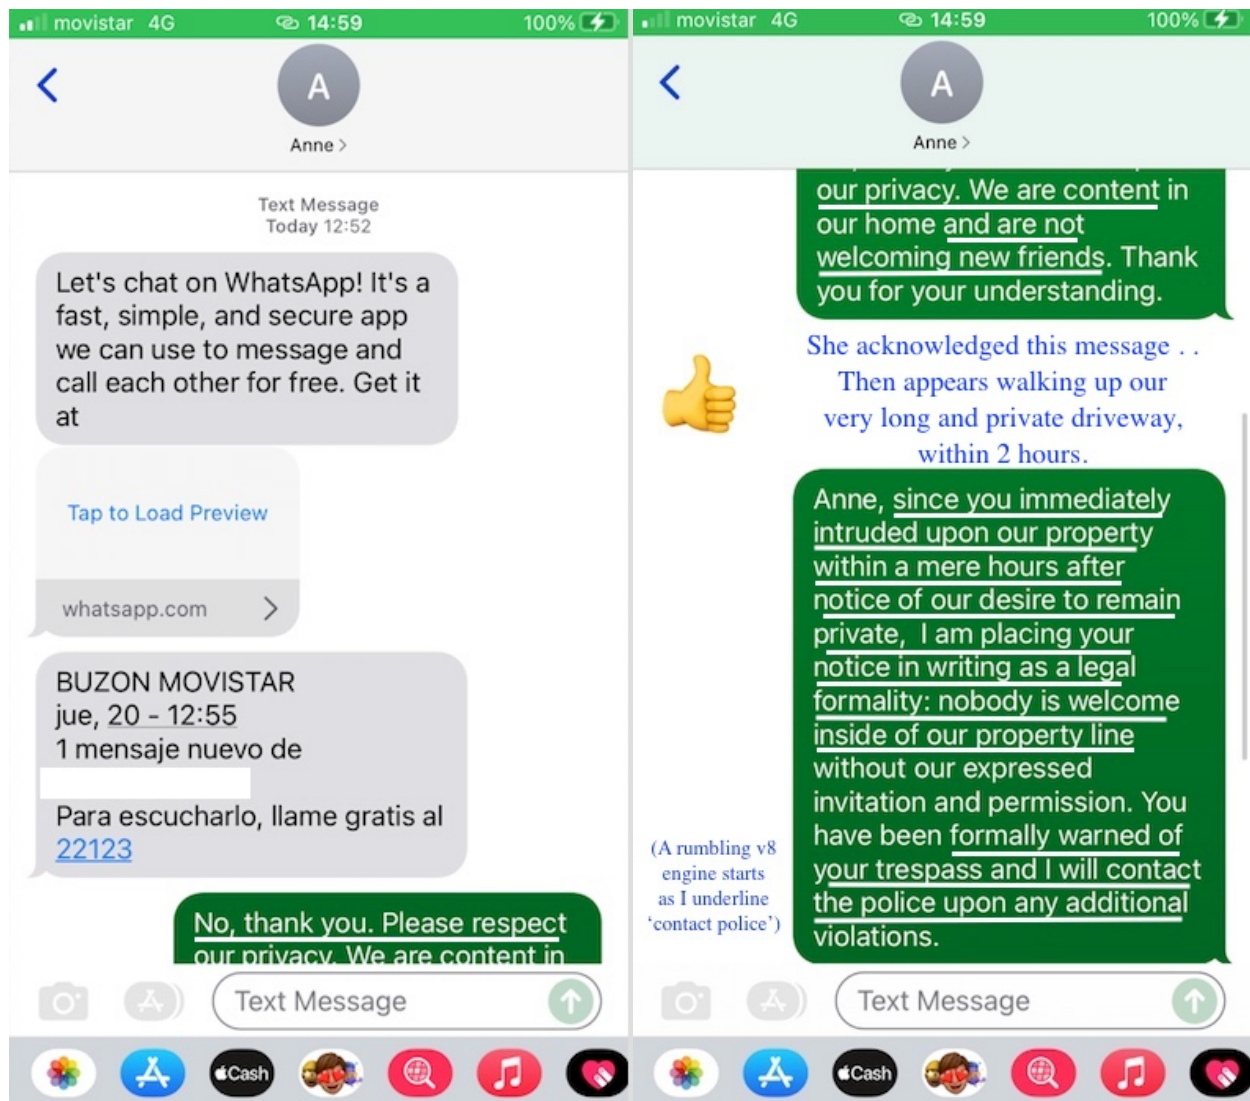

The philosophy of the Old Testament idiots is to 'harvest the trees of their neighbors.'

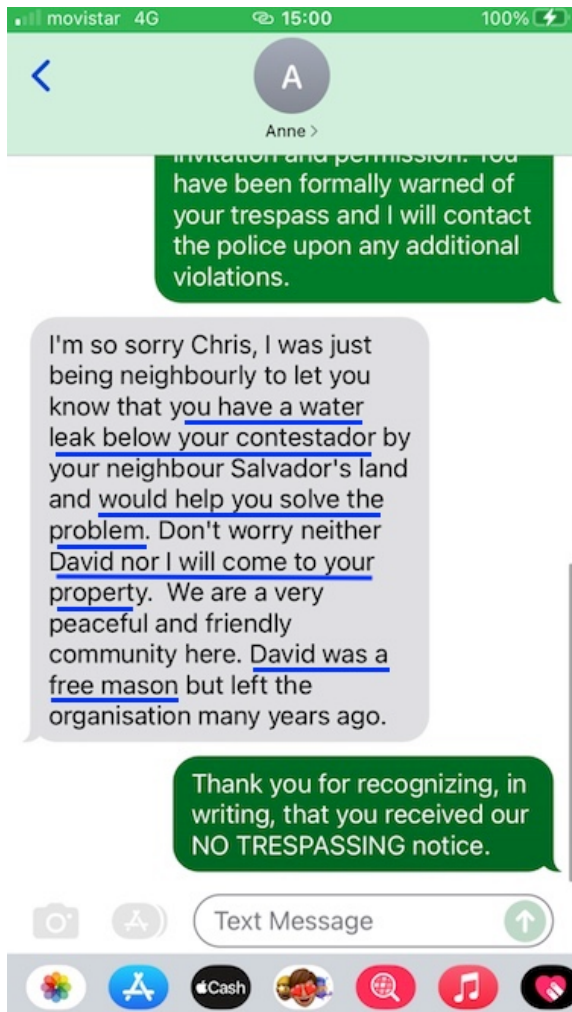

So, one last point - these people, in my neighborhood both here in San Antonio, Texas, and in Periana, Spain were the families in the houses that seemed especiallly nice, well —maintained, fully-funded and well preserved while their neighbors home appear to be running on empty.

This is my personal experience with who they are and what they are doing to 'maintain' their Nazi homes and Nazi lifestyles.

(My keyboard is now malfunctioning - and intermittently causing me delays)

Please excuse any types - I really need to get back to living my life right now. (Cars, banging, vacuums, noises, all around - a constant 'sea' of machine noises awaits me.)
